Aims and Scope

The Majestic Journal of Pharmacology and Toxicology (MJPT) is a peer-reviewed journal dedicated to publishing high-quality research in pharmacology, toxicology, pharmaceutical sciences, and related biomedical fields. The journal aims to promote scientific advancement in drug discovery, therapeutic development, toxicological evaluation, and clinical research through innovative and interdisciplinary studies. It provides an international platform for researchers, academicians, and healthcare professionals to share knowledge and contribute to advancements in medical and pharmaceutical sciences.

Call for Papers

MJPT cordially invites researchers, academicians, healthcare professionals, and industry experts to submit original research articles, review papers, short communications, and perspectives that advance knowledge in pharmacology, toxicology, pharmaceutical sciences, and related biomedical fields. The journal welcomes cutting-edge research on topics including drug discovery, clinical pharmacology, toxicological studies, pharmacokinetics, medicinal chemistry, therapeutics, pharmaceutical biotechnology, and experimental and clinical medicine.
